Civil Action No. _____

Motion For Appointment Of Counsel

Comes now, the Plaintiff, Charles P. Jones, pro-se and moves this Honorable Court for Appointment of Counsel, to represent Plaintiff.

In support of this Motion Plaintiff states that the following is true and correct, to the best of his knowledge and belief:

1. Plaintiff is incarcerated.
2. The administration at the Delaware Correctional Center where the Plaintiff is held limits the days and times that Plaintiff is allowed access to the law library.

3. Plaintiff is unskilled and ignorant in the Law.
4. Knowing that there will be testimony from witnesses, and expert testimony, which will put the pro-se litigant at a considerable disadvantage.
5. Appointment of Counsel would serve "the best interests of justice" in this case.

Therefore, Plaintiff prays This Honorable Court appoint Counsel to represent the Plaintiff.
